Gloria Burgess, PhD

Sanctuary: Rekindling the Heart of Leadership®

Monday - Friday: 9:00a.m. - 12:30p.m. EDT | 30-Minute Break Daily
15-Hour Course | Delivery Format: In-Person Only

During this time of continuous disruption and global transformation, many of us live in a complex landscape fraught with isolation and demanding levels of attentiveness. As servant leaders dedicated to our families, organizations, and clients, we excel at prioritizing everyone and everything on our to-do lists. But we often lose sight of prioritizing ourselves, neglecting the core values and practices that distinguish us as leaders and vital contributors in our communities.

In this interactive workshop, Dr. Gloria Burgess, pioneer in leadership formation, master facilitator, and acclaimed poet and author, invites you to realign with values, practices, and choices that enliven your leadership. Participants will explore the concept of sanctuary, intentionally creating time to reflect on work, center on practices that help us realign with what holds heart and meaning, and reconnect with our inner wisdom and purpose as servant leaders. Sessions will include small group exercises, dialogue, reflection, and other integrative modalities.

This highly experiential workshop will provide you with a comprehensive set of strategies and practices aimed at supporting you to become more intentional in stewarding your resources at work and beyond. The course is designed for organizational leaders, coaches, therapists, consultants, health care practitioners, educators, clergy, social workers, and others in the helping professions who seek to invest in their leadership formation, improve impact and sustainability at work, and renew motivation to engage with empathy, creativity, and graciousness.

Drawing on relevant research from behavioral science, leadership, the arts, positive organizational scholarship, neuroscience, and perennial wisdom traditions, we will create a vibrant community of learning and belonging.

Gloria Burgess, PhD has dedicated her life to exploring intentional living and servant leadership. Because how we live is how we lead and how we serve. A pioneer in leadership formation and leadership development, she conceived and coined the terms legacy consciousness and legacy leadership. She infuses the ethos of legacy consciousness and service into all aspects of her work, so that we might become intentional stewards of our individual, collective, and planetary resources.

For many years, Gloria led retreats and workshops only in corporate, health care, academic, and philanthropic settings to inspire and equip frazzled, fragmented leaders. So many people have requested her programs, they are now open to people in all professions.

Gloria serves as faculty for transformational leadership at the University of Southern California, University of Washington, and IEDC Bled School of Management in Slovenia. Founder of the Global Institute for Legacy Leadership, she is a trusted advisor and executive consultant who collaborates with organizations around the world. Her groundbreaking books include Flawless Leadership: Connecting Who You Are with What You Know and Do and Sanctuary: Restoring the Rhythm of Rest and Renewal. Gloria and her husband live in North Carolina. www.gloriaburgess.com.
